

VMS for PROMIS Training

This day long course explores the use of the VMS/ Alpha (Open/VMS) operating system as a platform for PROMIS. It explores basic VMS commands with practice sessions in a real PROMIS environment.

An additional day can be added that investigates the PROMIS architecture on VMS and the VMS commands you will use to maintain and manage your system.

Prerequisites

- none

What You Will Achieve

- The basic skills to navigate your PROMIS system.
- The basic VMS skills needed to manage your PROMIS system (optional)
- The basic skills to manipulate files effectively on your PROMIS system.

Who Should Attend

- PROMIS System Managers
- Key Users
- Others interested in learning basic VMS architecture

Topics

- Basic VMS architecture
- VMS Environment
- File systems
- File manipulation
- Directory structure and commands
- Process and job information and manipulation
- Customizing your environment
- Operating system accounts
- Overview of PROMIS environment on VMS
- Command procedures (optional)
- Advanced file manipulation including backup and restore (optional)

Contact PLC

For further details of this service, please contact PLC.

Email: info@prestonlane.com

Web: www.prestonlane.com

Telephone: 416 315 1746

Address: 100 Upper Madison #1404, Toronto, Ontario, Canada, M2N 6M4